Call to Worship and portion of Prayer of Confession written by Stephanie Sorge for Presbyterian Outlook.

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

Prelude Our Father, in Heaven, BWV 737 J.S. Bach

* Call to Worship

One: God calls us here together – each of us, all of us, our whole selves.

All: We bring our questions, our longings, our hopes, our dreams and our fears.

One: Jesus invites us to come and see where God is at work.

All: Across the street and across the globe, Jesus is present.

One: Within thee walls and within our hearts, God is here.

All: Let us worship the God who reaches out in love and invites us to come and see!

* Hymn 465 What a Friend We Have in Jesus CONVERSE

Prayer of Confession

All: Saving God, we confess that we often have not waited patiently for you. We have preferred to sing our own song, to go our own way, and to put our trust in idols, institutions and individual strength rather than trusting you. We neglect you and our faith until we need something. Forgive us for not trusting in your mercy and presence in our lives. Lead us to the places in our lives where we need healing and wholeness.

Please continue your prayers in silence.

Declaration of Love

One: As far as the East is from the West so far is our sin taken from us.

Hear the Good News of the Gospel. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

All: Thanks be to God. Amen.

Response of Praise, Hymn 620 v. 1

LAUDA ANIMA

All Sing:

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet your tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
evermore his praises sing: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

* Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Prayer is at the heart of worship. It is a gift from God, who desires dialogue and relationship with us. It is a posture of faith and a way of living in the world. Prayer is also the primary way in which we participate in worship. Christian prayer is offered through Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Faithful prayer is shaped by God's Word in Scripture and inspires us to join God's work in the world.

Our offertory below, Royal Telephone, from the early 1900s, uses now-dated telephone images such as busy centrals, crossed lines, grounded wires, and paid calls to picture prayer as a direct, always-open line to God.

God Be in My Head

John Rutter

God be in mine eyes, and in my looking;
God be in my mouth, and in my speaking;
God be in my heart, and in my thinking;
God be at mine end, and at my departing.*

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

All sing:

Lord, listen to your children praying.

Lord, send your Spirit in this place.
Lord, listen to your children praying.
Send us love; send us power; send us grace.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

The singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs is a vital and ancient form of prayer. Singing engages the whole person and helps to unify the body of Christ in common worship. The Congregation itself is the church's primary choir; the purpose of rehearsed choirs and other musicians is to lead and support the congregation in the singing of prayer. Every action in worship is to glorify God and contribute to the good of the people. Music in worship is always to be an offering to God. (Book of Order, W-2.0202)

Davidson College Presbyterian Church is part of the PC(USA). As a member of the Covenant Network of Presbyterians, we are a welcoming, affirming, and inclusive faith community where all are one in Christ. We are a Matthew 25, Earth Care and Stephen Ministry congregation on the corner of campus and community. Our congregation celebrates partnerships in Christ with the Sigona Presbyterian Church in Kikuyu, Kenya; and the Kilambe communities in Jinotega, Nicaragua; and Blythe Elementary School in Huntersville, NC. Together we seek to grow in witnessing to Christ in a complex world and to learn more about how to respond as disciples to the great needs of the world. Our sanctuary stands on lands once occupied by the indigenous communities of the Catawba people and our first worship space was built with bricks made by enslaved people. We remember them to God as we honor and recognize them in worship.
